

Travel Risk Awareness Training

Prepare your employees to become safe and confident international travellers. Complement your Membership with the right training to ensure employees are properly prepared and you are mitigating the risks of their international travel.

Safe, Confident Travellers

How do you prepare your travellers and assignees for international travel?

By properly training your travelling employees, both you and they can gain peace of mind. By helping to keep them out of harm's way, you will be fulfilling more than just your duty-of-care.

Mitigated Risks

Knowing the common risks associated with unfamiliar destinations is half the battle. Remembering them when destinations seem familiar is equally important.

For seasoned or inexperienced travellers, our Travel Risk Awareness Training provides crucial information to reduce the chance of your employees being impacted by an incident.

Meaningful And Memorable

Comprehensive Travel Risk Awareness training covers these topics:
