TRAVEL AWARENESS - HIGHER RISK (ELEARNING)

The Travel Awareness - Higher Risk eLearning is designed to prepare members of your organisation, who travel to medium and higher risk locations, for the security risks they may face in new or challenging environments,

Bringing together the unparalleled expertise of Control Risks' training, response and crisis management departments, the course focuses on building an understanding of, and how to mitigate against, the security risks in a medium or higher risk location. The primary audience for this course is employees travelling, working or living in medium and higher risk locations. It is also of benefit to those who have responsibility for these individuals.

UNDERSTAND RISKS AND MITIGATING ACTIONS. By the end of the eLearning course, learners will be able to identify and respond to:

- Surveillance methods and techniques
- Effectively plan and prepare for journeys
- A security incident or attack

LEARN AT YOUR OWN PACE. The course is structured in to three bite-sized sections, each lasting between 5 and 10 minutes. It is interactive, and engaging, combining real scenarios and experiences.

DEMONSTRATE DUTY OF CARE. Through completion reports and certificates issued, organisations will be confident that their employees have been duly equipped before travel.
