

TIMUR BAIGUZHINOV

REGIONAL SECURITY MANAGER, RUSSIA AND CIS INTERNATIONAL SOS AND CONTROL RISKS

Based in Moscow

Timur joined International SOS and Control Risks as Regional Security Manager, Russia-CIS, in December 2017. Since that time, Timur has been actively involved in a wide range of company's projects, providing top level security services, performing consulting tasks and trainings to members operating in and out of the region, the most ambitious of which was ensuring safety and providing assistance on security related requests to members during the 2018 World Cup in Russia.

Before joining International SOS and Control Risks, Timur had a diverse experience of working in sales, marketing, procurement and project management, including the position of Astana Regional Director of Education First, an international educational company, a Supply chain engineer at a subsidiary company of Kazakhstan's National Atomic Company Kazatomprom, and most recently, a member of the team at Nazarbayev University responsible for creating content of pavilions and preparing events for International Specialized Exhibition EXPO 2017 in Astana.

Timur holds degrees in International Affairs and in Law from top Kazakhstani universities. He is also an alumnus of undergraduate exchange programs from the United States of America and Czech Republic.